4. Grant of Exclusive Right of Burial

4.1 An Exclusive Right of Burial in a specific numbered plot in the cemetery is acquired by payment in full to the Council of the sum specified in the table of cemetery fees in force on the date of purchase. The selection of grave spaces is subject to approval by the Council.

4.2 On the purchase of an Exclusive Right of Burial in a plot a deed ("the Deed of Grant") confirming the grant of the Exclusive Right of Burial shall be issued by the Council to the purchaser, whose name and address shall be registered in the Register of Grants kept by the Clerk to the Council. The purchaser shall inform the Council of any change of address.

4.3 The Council reserves the right to delay or cancel any interment where in its opinion ownership of an Exclusive Right of Burial is disputed.

4.4 An Exclusive Right of Burial for any plot grants the following rights to the person acquiring the said Right and his successors, namely:

- (i) for the grantee to be buried in a grave in that plot
- (ii) for other persons to be buried in that grave so long as sufficient space is available
- (iii) the interment or scattering of cremated remains in or over that plot
- (iv) to erect or place a memorial on the plot subject to the provisions of these Regulations
- (v) to authorise inscriptions and additional inscriptions to be placed on a memorial subject to the provisions of these Regulations.

4.5 The Exclusive Right of Burial shall subsist for a period of 99 years from the date of purchase. At the expiration thereof, the Council may renew the Grant for further periods subject in all cases to the payment of the appropriate fees at the time of purchase. The selection of grave spaces is subject to approval by the Council.

4.6 Notice of the transfer or assignment of an Exclusive Right of Burial shall be given to the Council who shall enter the transfer in the Register of Grants upon the production of the Deed of Grant. The Council shall be entitled to require the provision of satisfactory evidence that the Exclusive Right of Burial has been duly transferred.

4.7 Where no interment has taken place in a purchased plot the Council may in its absolute discretion agree to cancel the Exclusive Right of Burial upon the Deed of Grant being delivered to the Clerk to the Council for cancellation. In such cases the Council shall refund the original sum paid for the Exclusive Right of Burial.

4.8 If it proves not reasonably practicable to excavate a grave in a plot in respect of which an Exclusive Right of Burial has been granted, the Clerk to the Council shall be entitled to transfer the said Right to an alternative plot within the cemetery. In that event the Clerk to the Council shall if reasonably practicable seek the views of the grantee or his family, as the case may be, regarding the location of the alternative plot but shall not be obliged to accede to such views

4.9 Surrender of Exclusive Right of Burial. Where no interment has taken place, and provided that the Exclusive Right of Burial will not lapse within ten years, the owner may surrender it to the Council and be refunded 75% of the fee paid.

Note: The Deed of Grant is an important document and should be kept in a safe place. At the time of arranging the funeral of the current deed holder, it is recommended that the Deed of Grant be transferred to another family member to allow future interments to proceed without delay or hindrance.
